

Policy Variation Instrument

ACADEMIC DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM (ADP) POLICY - TEMPORARY VARIATION

Section 1 – Purpose and Context

- 1) This instrument is made under:
 - a. Part F Clause (19) of the Delegations of Authority Policy that provides the Vice-Chancellor the power and delegated authority to exercise any functions related to the management, operations and administration of the University except: reserved functions; functions specifically delegated to the Board of Trustees, Academic Senate or a committee of the Board; and any function that exceeds any financial limited delegated by the Board of Trustees to the Vice-Chancellor.

And

 - b. Delegation Schedule HH – Corporate, Governance and Legal Delegations, delegation HH10 that provides authority to the Vice-Chancellor to approve rules and policies related to management and operations of the University, including Policy Framework Policy, Procedures and Guidelines.

Section 2 – Details of Variation

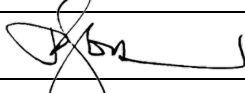

- 2) Policy affected:
 - a. Academic Development Program (ADP) Policy
- 3) Details of variation:

Additional requirement to Clause 14: Only academic staff at Level A, Level B or Level C will be eligible to apply.

Commencement Date: 24 September 2020

End Date: 31 December 2020

Note: end date must be no longer than 6 months from the Commencement Date but this instrument may be extended or renewed for a further period of up to 6 months.

Signature of Approval Authority
Name of Approval Authority	Professor Barney Glover AO
Position of Approval Authority	Vice-Chancellor and President
Date of Approval	24 September 2020

Date of Publication	25 September 2020
---------------------	-------------------